

A The Rio Grande is the fourth longest river in the USA.	B "Jonalers" are Mexican migrants who wait on street corners in American cities to be collected for work such as painting, moving furniture, gardening and farming.	C Enrique Canchola is a 42 year old Mexican from Zacatecas.
D Five percent of Mexico's population are undernourished. This isn't a problem in the USA.	E Zacatecas is a city that is 450 miles from the border with the USA.	F In, 2005, there were 5 million migrants into the USA. Over half, (about 2.7 million) were from Mexico.
G His plan was potentially deadly. It was really hot and he risked suffocation.	H 88% of people in Mexico have access to safe drinking water. In the USA everybody has access to safe drinking water.	I The average hourly wage in Mexico is $ 3.49 but it is $ 6.75 in California, USA.
J Last time, Enrique tried to swim across the polluted Rio Grande at night with ten other people, but he was caught and sent back.	K The guards at the San Ysidoro crossing saw his legs sticking out.	L His family hope he'll be able to send money back home. Enrique plans to return in 6 months or so.

M He sliced off the top of the leather seat and wriggled inside the cushion.	N The border is 1,950 miles long and patrolled by armed guards in jeeps, on horses and in helicopters with searchlights.	O Unemployment is rising in Zacatecas. Mining is no longer as profitable.
P The USA officially allows about 1 million migrants to enter the country every year	Q The river forms half of the border to separate the two countries.	R Enrique has a wife and two young daughters. His daughters are often ill.
S The USA government spends more money on education and healthcare than Mexico's government.	T Zacatecas is 2,400 metres above sea level. There are few rivers nearby, which create water supply problems for people and agriculture.	U Many try to cross the border in the hope of a better life.
V Last year there were 356 deaths along the border. The USA claims the main cause was exhaustion.	W 18% of people in Mexico live on less than $1 (60p) per day. In the US less than 1% of people are in this situation.	X In the USA, 8 out of 10 have a car. In Mexico, 2 out of 10 have a car.